GENERAL RULES

1. The purpose of the Club is to raise funds for use by the Capel Community Association, known as the CCA, for maintenance and development of the Capel Village Hall.
2. The Club is to be administered by the CCA. All monies raised will be transferred to the funds of the CCA, and identified in their annual accounts.
3. A "Series" of draws will consist of monthly prizes, quarterly prizes plus a jackpot prize at the end of the 12 months.
4. The maximum number of subscriptions in any one series is 100. Members may have more than one subscription in a series. Joint or Organisation membership is also allowable.
5. Each subscription will be allocated a number between 1 and 100 inclusive. If a member requests a specific number it will be allocated to them only if it is still available.
6. Membership becomes effective once the signed standing order mandate is received.
7. Payment can be made by quarterly standing order. Members will not be eligible for any future draws in a series, including the annual one, if their subscription has not been paid by the due date.
8. Prize winners will be paid by cheque drawn on the 100 Club's bank account.
9. Members will be eligible for the monthly and quarterly draws once their first payment has been received. Members will only be eligible for the annual jackpot prize when they have been in the 100 Club for a year or more.
